PROSPECTS OF THE COAST ROUTES.

The short item which tells us that " nearly all the pack trains have been placed on the Bentinck Arm route," speaks us most forcibly of the rapid change that has taken place within the last two years in British Columbia. From a trail for pedestrians to the upper country the requirements of an energetic and increasing mining population soon called for a path for the hardy pack animals. Scarcely was that completed to the confines of Cariboo when the advancing tide of progress demanded a wagon road. The ap-proaching completion of that great work-the central road-closes for that route the this leading nredecessor of railroads. As the settlement made along the line of travel.

The way side house drawing all its supplies from below has given place to the farmer's cottage. Instead of as formerly importing every thing from abroad, our way side pur own localities. The miner and the tra-der instead of the wild solitude of nature now beholds fields of waving grain falling in the harvest field neath the sharp cythe of the mower. Such has been the series of changes effected in British Columbia along the centre of the country since the opening of the mines in the Cariboo district.

The old pack train-the pioneer system of transport-is now abandoning that extent o country to its successor, the stage and the wagon. Another field must be sought where civilization has not yet made so much pro process of change is about to be repeated Packers and the pack trains will soon people the line between Koomkootz, on Bentinck Arm, and the mountain valleys of Cariboo as thickly as they formerly did the trails between Lillooet and Lytton and the Forks of Quesnelle. Already have settlements been commenced on the new routes. As soon as it becomes a little better known to the public below there will no doubt be a large number of settlers going up to occupy the fine graz ing valleys which lie thickly scattered over the fine rolling country between the Cascade Range and the Fraser. In some respects i will be a better country for settlement than that now traversed by the central wagon road.

The distance between the coast and Cariboo is on the former route so very short that the trains make rapid journeys back ward and for ward. From time to twelve days loaded fo the mines, and we suppose about half that length of time returning, being the rate at which they now make their trips, they will of course touch often in the season at the houses on the way, With a number of trains there will thus be a constant stream of trave crossed by the coast routes into consideration

They need not in the least be deterred by any dread of the severity of the climate. Mr presents any attraction in Central British Columbia, a constant stream of trade along the coast routes. The discovery of quartz veins, both of gold and silver, both in Carribo and elsewhere in British Columbia will give a permanence to the trade from the coast which could not naturally be expected from of a continuance of traffic and a market a their own door. The same thing will happen route. The country traversed by it, and the Bentick Arm trail, has the same general character, and there will, no doubt, be travel and trade to keep both routes going. Ulti-strange indeed if British Columbia does not where enormous mineral production flourishes side by side by the successful and extensive

THE ESCORT AND THE LATE MURDERS -The painful news which has reached us this week from above clearly establishes this fact that miners and traders can no longer risk the dangerous and insecure mode hitherto adopted of transporting their treasure from the mining regions. Under the existing state of affairs it is useless to expect that the government can rid the country of the cuthroat villains who are larking on the highways waylaying unsuspecting travellers, and throat villains who are larking on the highways waylaying unsuspecting travellers, and two roads are alone open for the protection of life. Treasure must be conveyed either by the regular Government Escort under the protection of about 15 well armed horsemen, or await the return of a sufficient number of miners, traders, or their employés to guard against all contingencies. The latter method is inevitably attended with many drawbacks, and is not calculated to afford that immunity

Let our miners and traders well con-sider this matter. If the Escort meets with the general support which it deserves, the nt could afford to add to its strength giving additional security, and the fact once known throughout the country that indi-viduals were not worth the risk of robbing, we should not hear of the atrocious and coldblooded murders which are beginning to disgrace the annals of our sister colony. NEIGHBORLY CONDUCT.—We lately chronicled the particulars of a stabbing affair at San Juan, which terminated fatally, and we now learn that another act of equal atrocity, though not attended at present with the same serious results, was committed a few days ago on that Island. It appears that two quarrel, and the former becoming enraged, drew a knife, and inflicted a terrible gash in the later of the latter, fortunately escaping the Kaye's Worsdell's Vegetable Restorative Pills.

For the last thirty years the truth has been gaining ground that to purify the blood is the simplest and most natural way of restoring and maintaining health; and the great and distinguishing feature of these celebrated pills is, that they speedily eradicate all disease from the body, by purifying the blood; thus good health is at once purifying the blood; thus good health is at once secured, and all may ensure a sound constitution and complete freedom from pain and disease. The pamphlet enclosed with each box of the pills gives most interesting particulars of many hundreds of cases of cure, together with instruc-tions for the use of the medicine. TRY ONL BOX OF
